"During a meeting with [Kazakh] President [Nursultan] Nazarbayev, I asked him about hosting a new round of talks in Astana," Randa Kassis, head of the Movement of the Pluralistic Society, told Sputnik.

"The Astana-2 conference will take place on October 2-4," Kassis said.

According to Kassis, the conference will be mediated by Kazakh Deputy Foreign Minister Askar Musinov and director of the French Center for Political and Foreign Affairs Fabien Baussart.

Iran launches a third wave of strikes against Israel - state TV

On the night of June 13, the Israel Defense Forces (IDF) launched a large-scale operation named "Rising Lion," during which the Israeli Air Force carried out strikes on Iranian military targets and nuclear program facilities.

The Israeli Air Force conducted several waves of attacks in various regions of Iran, including Tehran, where some high-ranking Iranian military officials were killed, among them the Chief of the General Staff of the Iranian Armed Forces and the commander of the Islamic Revolutionary Guard Corps (IRGC), as well as several nuclear scientists. Multiple nuclear sites in the country, including Natanz and Fordow, were also targeted, along with Iranian military positions in various parts of the country.

Iran's Supreme Leader Ayatollah Ali Khamenei, in a message to the nation, called Israel's strikes on Iran a crime and declared that Israel faces a "bitter and dreadful fate."

The Islamic Revolutionary Guard Corps (IRGC) announced that, in response to the Israeli strikes, the Islamic Republic has launched an operation named "Truthful Promise 3."
